ORDER

SARAH NETBURN, United States Magistrate Judge:

On October 1, 2024, the Honorable Sidney H. Stein referred this matter to my docket for general pretrial matters.

The parties are to follow the schedule set out in the October 1, 2024 Civil Case Management Plan. ECF No. 29. All pretrial applications, including those relating to scheduling and discovery, must comply with the Individual Practices of Judge Netburn, which are available on the Court's website <https://nysd.uscourts.gov/hon-sarah-netburn>.

All discovery (including requests for admissions) must be initiated early enough to be concluded by the deadline for all discovery. Discovery motions—that is, any application pursuant to Rules 26 through 37 or 45—must comply not only with paragraph I(b) of the Court's Individual Practices but also must be made promptly after the cause for such a motion arises. In addition, absent good cause, no such application will be considered if made later than 30 days before the close of discovery.

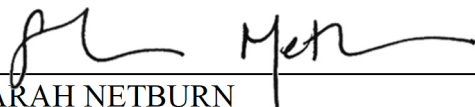

Any application for an extension of time with respect to any deadlines in this matter must be made as soon as the cause for the extension becomes known to the party making the application and must be made in accordance with paragraph I(g) of the Court's Individual Practices. The application must state the position of all other parties regarding the proposed extension and must show good cause for the extension. "Good cause" as used in this paragraph does not include circumstances within the control of counsel or the party. Any application not in compliance with this paragraph will be denied.

Status Letter. A joint letter informing the Court about the status of discovery shall be filed with the Court by Monday, December 16, 2024.

Settlement Conference. In light of the Court's busy calendar, settlement conferences must generally be scheduled at least six to eight weeks in advance. The Court will likely be unable to accommodate last-minute requests for settlement conferences, and the parties should not anticipate that litigation deadlines will be adjourned in response to late requests for settlement conferences. Accordingly, the parties are encouraged to contact Courtroom Deputy Diljah Shaw with both parties on the e-mail, at diljah_shaw@nysd.uscourts.gov, to schedule a settlement conference for a time when they believe it would be productive.

SO ORDERED.

SARAH NETBURN
United States Magistrate Judge
